The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, April 8. 1708.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated April 13.

Naples, March 13.

YESTERDAY Count Taun receiv'd Orders from the Court of Vienna, to ſend forthwith to Milan the two Imperial Regiments of Horſe of Vehlen and Neubourg, to ſerve in the Room of the Troops that are to go from that Dutchy to Catalonia. Two Tartans being arriv'd here with Corn from Amalfi, the Price of Bread, which was very dear, is a little fallen. King Charles has made General Taun Grandee of Spain. By Order of our Government the Duke of Parma's Eſtates in this Kingdom are Confiſcated, as are likewiſe thoſe of the Dukes of Atri, Medina Cœli, Sarno and Popoli; and of the Prince of Caſtiglione, Santo Buono, and Seſto. 'Tis ſaid too that the like will be done to thoſe of the Duke of Tuſcany, he having, as 'tis pretended, favour'd the ſending of Proviſions and Succours to Porto-Hercole, and Porto-Longone.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated April 13.

Naples, March 20. Several Tartans are ſent from hence to continue to take in Corn in Calabria, and the other Maritime Provinces, notwithſtanding the Veſſels of Meſſina, that endeavour to hinder that Commerce, and againſt whom ſeveral Arm'd Barks are put out to Sea. A large Tartan with Troops aboard is likewiſe ſent to Gaeta to reinforce the Garriſon of that Place. That which ſail'd ſome Days ago with 600 Men and Ammunition towards Tuſcany, continues its Way with a favourable Wind. We expect here 5000 Men from Germany, to replace the Detachments that have been made to finiſh the Reduction of the Places that are block'd up in Tuſcany, and the 2000 Horſe that are going for Lombardy. By Order of the Collateral Council, Endeavours are us'd to bring down the Price of the Crown-Lands, that were ſold, and alienated under the late Government, that the Sums ſo ſav'd may be apply'd to the Benefit of the Royal Treaſury.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated April 13.

Naples, March 20. On Monday laſt, the Feaſt of St. Joſeph, whoſe Name the Emperour bears, was celebrated here with great Solemnity and Rejoycings. Count Taun, our Viceroy, has receiv'd Orders from King Charles, to ſend him forthwith to Barcelona an exact Liſt of all the Perſons to whom Offices and Imployments have been given in this Kingdom during his Reign. The Prince of Litchtenſtein ſet out this Morning for Barcelona. Yeſterday and the Day before 6 Barks more arriv'd here with Corn from Amalfi and Salerna, which has caus'd the greater Joy among the Inhabitants of this City, becauſe no more was left than would have ſubſiſted them for three Days. A Detachment of 30 Men out of the Imperial Troops that were lately ſent to Orbitello have poſſeſs'd themſelves of the Iſland of Ponza, a Fief belonging to the Duke of Parma, and driven ſeveral French Privateers from thence. The 2 Regiments of Imperial Horſe that are to return into the Milaneze, have Orders to draw together at Capua; they will take their Way through the Abruzzo, and are to carry with them the Priſoners of State that are in the Province of Lavaro, particularly the Dukes of Eſcalona and Biſaccia, the Prince of Sellinare, and the Marquis of Caſtiglione, who are to be conducted to the Caſtle of Milan, where they are to remain till farther Orders from the Houſe of Auſtria. In the Room of this Cavalry we expect a greater Number of Troops to be brought hither by General Caraffa, and they are to be poſted on the Coaſt of Calabria with a good Body of other regular Troops and Militia to Protect that Province from the Invaſion with which 'tis threaten'd from Meſſina.

Leghorn, March 24. The Crew of the 4 Galleys of Turkis that are now here, had form'd a Deſign of putting to Sea the Night between the 18th and 19th of this Month, they were to have been follow'd by a Britiſh Man of War, who was to ſend 500 Men aboard them to make themſelves Maſters of the ſaid Galleys in the Name of King Charles III. but one of the Pilots of thoſe Galleys diſcover'd the Conſpiracy to Cardinal de Medicis, who having inform'd the Conſul of France of it, he ſent 150 Men aboard the Galleys at the time when the Deſign was to have been put in execution, ſo that many of the Conſpirators were taken into Cuſtody, and among others one Girolamo Correze, a Genoeze by Birth, and Commander of the Slaves of the Admiral Galley, who was put aboard one of the other Galleys. A Felucca is arriv'd here in two Days from Civitavecchia, the Maſter of which reports that he met at Sea 6 Neapolitan Veſſels, having on Board 600 Imperial Soldiers, 16 Pieces of heavy Cannon, 4 Mortars, and 1000 Bombs for the German Troops that block up the Fortreſſes of Porto-Hercole, and Porto-Longone. A Privateer of Zealand call'd the Duke of Savoy, has brought in here a French Tartane laden with Corn.

Venice, March 30. On Monday laſt ſome Officers of the Cuſtoms went on board a Gondola coming from Malamoco, and belonging to my Lord Manchester, Ambaſſador Extraordinary from the Queen of Great Britain, whoſe Servants that were aboard had been Brib'd by a Merchant of this City to bring into his Houſe ſome Engliſh Cloath from on board a Britiſh Ship that lies in this Harbour: But his Excellency gave in Yeſterday a very preſſing Memorial to our Regency, demanding Satisfaction for the Affront thereby offer'd to his Character, and alledging that in this Caſe the Republick ought to have complain'd to his Excellency of the Perſons aboard the Gondola who had been corrupted; and not to have inſulted his Bark and Livery in ſearching and taking away the leaſt thing that was aboard it. Upon this the Senate ſent one of their Secretaries the ſame Day to his Excellence with a very civil Anſwer, by which they aſſur'd him, that it was done without their Knowledge, and that they had given Orders to confine the Officers of the Cuſtoms, who had any Hand in it, that they might be puniſh'd according to their Deſerts.

Plymouth,

Plymouth, April 4. Yesterday sail'd her Majesty's Ship the Pembrooke for Falmouth: Came in her Majesty's Ship the Alborough from the Westward with a French Privateer of 10 Guns, 8 Patereroes and 70 Men; and likewise 2 Dutch Men of War of 72 and 62 Guns, they parted from Sir John Leake with the outward-bound Fleet about 18 Days since, 20 Leagues off of Lisbon in a Storm; the lesser Ship has lost her Fore and Main-Masts. This Day came in her Majesty's Ships the Southampton and Lizard, with 20 Vessels for Wales.

Shields, April 3. All the Men of War and Transports are in and at our Bar yet; being detain'd by contrary Winds.

Harwich, April 6. On Sunday towards the Evening all the Transports with the Merchant-Ships for Holland return'd back, the Wind taking them short at E S E, as did the Bonetta with 30 Coasters under her Convoy for Lynn, who this Morning sail'd to the Northward. The Transports are still here.

In Yesterday's Courant, the 44th line of the First Colume, for French read English.
